Time to replace your furnace filter

Replacing dirty filters regularly can improve your furnace's efficiency.

When filters are clogged with dirt and particles, air cannot flow easily. The furnace must work harder — and a furnace that does not operate efficiently will cost you more in energy bills.

To replace disposable filters, pull out the old filter located in a simple-to-find spot generally on or near the furnace. Make a note of how it was inserted. Most filters indicate the top, bottom and correct direction for installation. The dimensions and description will be clearly marked on the filter. Thickness is important, so be sure you use the full dimensions when you buy a replacement.

If you have permanent, non-disposable filters carefully pull them out and clean them monthly as well. Follow the manufacturer's instructions.

YOUR SAFETY

Natural gas safety

Natural gas is odorless, colorless and nontoxic in its natural state.

We add an odorant that smells like rotten eggs so you'll know right away if there's a problem in or around your home.

If you smell or hear a gas leak, take these precautions:

- Don't smoke, light matches, turn your electrical switches on or off, use the telephone or do anything else that might create a spark.
- Open your windows and outside doors, if possible.
- Evacuate everyone in your home or building, and stay out until someone from Avista tells you it is safe to return.
- Keep others away from the area.
- Call 911, and then Avista at (800) 227-9187, from a neighbor's phone or cell phone at a safe distance.

Your money. You earned it. Now claim it!

If you worked in 2011, you may qualify for a federal Earned Income Tax Credit. And you can get free tax preparation help to file for it. The following may qualify, though certain restrictions apply:

Families who have one child and earned less than $36,052 in 2011 (or less than $41,132 for married/filing jointly) may be eligible for a credit of up to $3,094.

Families who have two children and earned less than $40,964 in 2011 (or less than $46,044 for married/filing jointly) may be eligible for a credit of up to $5,112.

Families who have three or more children and earned less than $43,998 in 2011 (or less than $49,078 for married/filing jointly) may be eligible for a credit of up to $5,751.

Workers who do not have a qualifying child and earned less than $13,660 in 2011 (or less than $18,740 for married/filing jointly) may be eligible for a credit up to $464.

For free tax-preparation help, call (888) 227-7669, or go to www.irs.gov. You can also dial 211 and ask for the free tax site nearest you.

Do you have drafty windows or doors?

Try one of these do-it-yourself solutions:

- Apply weather-stripping.
- Use foam sealant or caulking.
- Use a plastic-film storm window kit.
- Use window coverings.

Keeping your information safe

Your trust is important to us. That's why we want to make sure you have information on our standard business practices to keep you safe from scams.

Avista field employees always have an Avista photo ID badge, and they often will be wearing Avista apparel. Employees typically do not need access to a customer's home or business unless the customer has contacted Avista about a specific problem or program.

Employees do not phone or email customers asking for confidential information.

If you receive a call from someone claiming to be an Avista representative asking for confidential information, you should end the call and phone us at (800) 227-9187.

You can also call us at any time to verify the identification an employee.
